Dear

I read your letter with interest and am pleased that you have found a sponsor who can appreciate your background and perhaps be of assistance in finding employment for you.

Your resume has been reviewed by our personnel component, but at the present time no suitable position is available. I assure you that every possibility was examined.

I am sure you realize that the loss of South Vietnam and Cambodia has greatly affected all U.S. Government agencies which formerly had staffs in the area. In most cases there now is a surplus of personnel. Thus it would seem advisable for you to seek employment in the private sector. I urge you to take advantage of the resources available to you in California, such as the State Employment Service, and if need be accept a less-than-ideal position as a first start. For those who work hard and persevere, the United States still can be a land of opportunity.

Please accept my best wishes for your success. I am confident that the talents which brought you to the fore in Vietnam also will be recognized here and that your situation will improve gradually but steadily.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
Director
